Dear Sport Kitters,

As many of you may be aware, the organizers of the St. Augustine Sport Kite Classic (SASKC) have been planning for some time now to include a Tricks Party competition as part of the schedule for our event in January 2006. Because of the overwhelming response from fliers across the country and the potential for several fliers from France to travel to the U.S. to participate in what will be the first fully sanctioned Tricks Party USA™ competition, it has become clear that the Tricks Party competition needs to be expanded to a full day. As a result, we have been forced to review the slate of AKA disciplines we will be able to offer while still keeping the event to 2 full days. Therefore, we have made the very difficult decision not to offer several disciplines that the Eastern League requires in order to receive sanctioning and to qualify for League points. The tentative competition schedule will look something like this:

Saturday, January 28, 2006 = AKA-Sanctioned Events

Combined NIP/EIP
Combined NIB/EIB
MIP
MIB
OPP
OPB
OMP
OMB

Sunday, January 29, 2006 = Tricks Party USA–Sanctioned Events

Imposed Tricks
Ballet

We sincerely regret any inconvenience that this schedule change may cause for any of our fellow Eastern League competitors and friends, but we feel that these changes are in the best interest of the continued growth and viability of our event.

Should you have any questions, please contact me at the e-mail address below.

Kind regards,

Ted Goodman
